

STOCKS

With the market in New York strong, much to the discomfort of the "shorts," who are in a nervous state, strengthened by the reports going forth as to the excellent conditions in the Tonopah mines today broke the lull of the last week or ten days in the transactions. Throughout the day, the tone of the market improved and there is reason to believe that the highly gratifying condition is the forerunner of a further upward trend.

Due to the report of a strike on 1250-foot level of the mine, North Star captured first place in the transactions on the San Francisco board and locally. It was also extensively handled in New York. Opening the market at 27 cents in the selling, it began to soar and went as high as 35. Profit-taking caused a slight reaction and the issue closed the day exceedingly strong at 35 cents. The remainder of the Tonopahs, on the whole, displayed strength.

The following are the closing stock quotations, and the record of the day's sales, as received from the San Francisco stock exchange this afternoon by Broker H. E. Epstine:

DEATH TAKES
S. W. GUNDAKER AT

FORMER PROPRIETOR OF MERCHANTS' HOTEL IN THIS CITY IS SUMMONED

S. W. Gundaker, a former Tonopah business man, who moved to Winnemucca and National at the height of the latter boom, died several days ago at Tucson, Ariz. While a resident of Tonopah Mr. Gundaker conducted the old Merchants hotel here, disposing of his interests that he might emigrate to National and enter mining. In speaking of his demise the Humboldt Star has the following to say:

S. W. Gundaker, a prominent mining man, well known throughout Nevada, and especially in this county, died this morning in Tucson, Arizona. The news was conveyed in a telegram from Mrs. Gundaker to J. Sheehan, cashier of the First National bank, with whom Mr. Gundaker was associated in extensive mining interests in the camp of National during the time the latter was a resident of this county.

Friends all over the western country will be grieved to hear of the death of "Sam" Gundaker. He was born in Pennsylvania 50 years ago. For many years he lived in Idaho, where he was engaged in mining and held various official positions. He spent several years in Alaska and came to Nevada during the boom days of Tonopah and Goldfield, followed the mining game in those camps and at Rawhide and came to this county in the early part of 1908, locating in National, then in its infancy. He became associated there with J. L. Workman, discoverer of the camp, and was the organizer and first president of the National Mining company, which owned the bonanza property which made the camp famous by the production of millions of dollars' worth of high grade. He made a handsome fortune in National through his mining operations, in which he was associated with the Stall brothers and J. Sheehan. About two years ago Mr. Gundaker disposed of the greater part of his National interests and removed to California, afterward acquiring a gold property near Tucson, which he was operating on an extensive scale at the time of his death.

The deceased leaves a wife, three sons, a daughter and a brother, the latter residing at Pocatello, Idaho.
